SPRING 2017

“Knowledge desires always increase; it is like fire which must first be kindled by some external agent, but which will afterwards propagate itself.” –
Dr. Samuel Johnson

Adult Enrichment Classes Spring 2017

In conjunction with the library's mission to support lifelong learning, the Hershey Public Library hosts a variety of classes for adults.

Participation in most of the classes listed below involves a fee, which covers all of the classes in the series and is determined by the instructor.

The library does not keep any part of the fee.

If you are interested in enrolling in any of the classes, you must stop by the Circulation Desk to pick up the packet for the particular class. Upon completion of the registration form and submission of the fee made payable to the instructor of the class or designated individual you will be considered enrolled. Some classes are limited in size. They will be filled on a first come, first served basis. The classes are open to individuals 16 and older unless noted otherwise.

Writing Your Memoirs
Sundays, January 22 through
February 26
2:00 to 3:30 p.m.

Instructor: Laura English
Fee: $60

This six-week course is designed to give you the opportunity to complete three stories based on significant events from your life. The format includes a writing prompt, time to work on your piece, and discussion afterward. We'll be doing a lot of writing, so you'll want to bring a pen or pencil, and a notebook or notepad to each class.

Class size is limited to 15.

Teen/Adult Writing Class
Mondays, March 6 through April 3
5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Instructor: Catherine Jordan
Fee: $75 or $15 per class

Write, read, critique. Write 1000 words per week, read aloud in class, and receive oral critique. Each class builds on the other as you continue to write. By the end of the five weeks, you should have a 4,000-5,000 word critiqued short story or novel beginning.

Ages 13 and older are welcome.

Class size is limited to 12.

---

Lightroom Class
